... inquiry, which has reportedly gone on for years. And some Democrats view the DOJ probe as a legitimate counterpart to House Republicans, saying it is the proper lane for investigating any of Hunter Biden's potential missteps.

Hunter Biden and his team are also going on offense, urging the DOJ, Delaware attorney general and IRS to investigate many of the figures who came to possess the files culled from his alleged laptop — and some of the "inconsistencies" in stories about how those various offices came to access the records.

That request from Hunter Biden would require the administration to take up the ...

Any indictment of President Joe Biden's son, who's long been under investigation, would effectively close off certain paths for Republicans.

House Republicans are itching to investigate Hunter Biden. But they have a problem: The feds got there first.

Though their probes differ in focus and scope — Republicans are looking at possible conflicts of interest by the Biden family writ large while the Justice Department homes in on potential crimes by Hunter Biden — they're treading on overlapping terrain. That's an issue for the House GOP, because any DOJ indictment of Hunter Biden would ...
